STREET STORIES

The Retail Merchants' Credit association will issue its first bulletin under the direction of the new secretary today.

A. H. Cornell was reported to be getting along nicely today, and hopes are entertained that he will soon be able to be on the streets.

The Elks are making great preparations for their annual Thanksgiving ball which will be given on the night of November 24, at the club rooms.

Andy Hutchins, who suffered a broken leg recently, was resting easily this morning, though the confinement, for a man of his temperament, is the hardest part of the ordeal for him.

The city council will meet in adjourned session this afternoon for the purpose of passing upon the building ordinance and other important matters which were deferred from the last regular session.

W. H. Prater and Mrs. Martha McElright were married at the home of the bride on Third avenue, northwest, last night by Rev. Dr. Butler, former pastor of the Broadway Methodist church.

Notwithstanding the fact that yesterday was circus day, and a large crowd was in town, good order prevailed, and aside from a few who were loitering too freely, and taken into custody, few arrests were made.

The fire department was called twice this morning to extinguish slight blazes. One was near the residence of Robert Gilliam, on West Main street, where a dry grass fire threatened the buildings, and the other in northwest Ardmore, where a stack of grain became ignited. Slight damage resulted from each fire.

Rev. Dr. Butler and family leave today for Muskogee, where they will reside in future. They will stop at Wynnewood and visit the family of E. C. Leal. Dr. Butler was chosen commissioner of education at the last conference of the M. E. church, and moves to Muskogee, where he will be more centrally located to handle the work.

THE COLDS OF MANKIND CURED BY PINES

Have you ever gone through a typical pine forest when you had a cold? What a vigorous impulse it sent! How you opened wide your lungs to take in those invigorating and mysterious qualities. Yes, Dr. Bolla's Pine-Tar Honey possesses those stimulating qualities and overcomes hacking coughs. The inner lining of the throat is strengthened in its attack against cold germs. Every family needs a bottle constantly at hand. 25c

Bottles in a Trunk.
If you have to pack bottles in a trunk, tie in the corks and wrap them in soft towels, garments, etc., and place in the middle of the trunk away from anything the contents would ruin if leakage occurs.

Beware of Cheap Substitutes.
In these days of keen competition it is important that the public should see that they get Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and not take substitutes sold for the sake of extra profit. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has stood the test and been approved for more than forty years. Obtainable everywhere.

How to Prevent Croup.

It may be a surprise to you to learn that in many cases croup can be prevented. Mrs. H. M. Johns, Elida, Ohio, relates her experience as follows: "My little boy is subject to croup. During the past winter I kept a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house, and when he began having that croupy cough, I would give him one or two doses of it, and it would break the attack. I like it better for children than any other cough medicine because children take it willingly, and it is safe and reliable." Obtainable everywhere.

Ashamed of Own Toes.
Man is a five-toed animal who seems ashamed of the fact. He covers his sensitive feet with leather, which turns him into an imitation ungulate, or hoofed creature, and then wonders why he has corns and bunions. He takes the spring out of the earth with his pavements and the elasticity out of his stride with hard-soled shoes, and marvels why walking has become a pain instead of a pleasure. There may be some climatic excuse for this folly in winter, and as for grown-ups at any season "the world has set its heavy yoke upon the grave and bearded folk." But give the kids, even the poor little rich kids, a chance to get their feet on the good breast of the earth.

WOMAN BUILDING CHURCH IN THIS COUNTY

THROUGH PERSONAL SOLICITATION SHE HAS RAISED MOST OF THE MONEY AND WILL ERECT BUILDING.

Mrs. Roy Brady of Pooleville has been hard at work for several months soliciting funds for the erection of a church at Pooleville, and has succeeded in securing enough of the amount necessary that it assures the citizens of that little inland town that the church will be erected.

K. W. Lawson of Oklahoma City, when he heard of her efforts, sent a check for fifty dollars, and a prominent oil operator of that vicinity has promised a like amount. She has raised considerable of the fund in the oil fields, and every one seems to have a disposition to help her in this work to the extent of their ability.

Mrs. Brady hopes to have the church in readiness for services before long, and the citizens of Pooleville are proud of the efforts of Mrs. Brady.

At the Rexall store Saturday and Sunday a gold and silver bon bon dish with every pound of chocolates.

Warning.
Don't wait until it gets cold to look after your heating stoves, don't buy an inferior stove, and be like a lot of our customers, trying to get an old price for the stoves you now have, that you may buy a Brooks Burner, "the wonder of the age."

Have them in all sizes to fit any room you have, large or small. Attend to this now, don't wait—we can't serve every one the same day.

HEAVY GALES ALONG WHOLE OF ATLANTIC

Market for Handkerchiefs.
The immediate surroundings of the great pier where St. Paul landed are as filthy as any other part of Pozzuoli. Indescribable old hags leer at us from the doorways; ragged and dirty children, wholly unacquainted with the use of a pocket handkerchief, swarm around us. Several small fishing boats are drawn up on the shore and a little church, called St. Paul's Chapel, stands immediately behind the ancient mole.

The modern pier, built over the ancient mole, is a truly magnificent one of solid cut stone, which runs far out into the sweet, clean water, and by going out to the end we get beyond the reach of the importunate touts. If one can forget the approaches to the pier, he can here enjoy the enchanting scenery of the sea and shore, while his mind is stimulated by memories of the mighty past.

Wilson and Bryan in resorting to scriptural quotations as a base for their arguments are reminded of that famous sentence uttered by Shakespeare, "The devil can cite scripture for his purpose."
